

Goals of the CRDTA

The CRDTA has a long proud history of representing teachers and their best interests in the Campbell River school district.

Since it's inception, the goals of the CRDTA have been:

- to represent its members by regulating relations with their employer through collective bargaining of terms and conditions of employment.
- to defend and uphold the Collective Agreement between the CRDTA and SD72
- to assist members in understanding clauses in the C.A. that are relevant to their situation
- to protect the rights of teachers in SD72 and ensure due process
- to represent and assist individual teachers with problems they encounter with their employer
- to promote the Health, Wellness, and Safety of teachers in SD72
- to assist members in times of personal crises
- to assist teachers in accessing BCTF programs available to them
- to refer teachers to other services and agencies that can assist them
- to promote the establishment and continued development in every school of sound teaching and learning conditions, including the provision of adequate support services
- to promote high quality autonomous professional development of teachers in order to support excellence in teaching
- to raise the status and promote the welfare of the teaching profession in SD72
- to promote and support Social Justice issues, such as anti-discrimination, anti- poverty, and women's equality
- to carry on such activities as may from time to time be prescribed or approved by the British Columbia Teachers' Federation.
- to work in conjunction with the BCTF and the other locals of the province to maintain a strong united teaching profession in B.C.
- to foster and promote the cause of Public Education in B.C.
